

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as

C · O · D · I · C ·

PRIMITIVO - 2009

89points - BEST BUY

Silver Medal - 2010 WWC Awards
Beverage Testing Institute
September 2, 2010

Primitivo has long been thought to be related to the Zinfandel grape. Like many zins, our Primitivo is fresh and spicy with a hint of tart cherry. It also exhibits nuances of its rustic regional character and a smooth finish with a soft mouthfeel.

This wine is best served with grilled meats and stews, as it will surely take its place on the dinner table as